

The Do Not Call List in Indiana has been very effective in eliminating annoying telemarketing calls. Please do not allow an exemption to the Consumer Bankers Association or any other financial institution allowing them to ignore the do not call list. In fact I wish that not-for-profits doing their own solicitations did not have the exemption they enjoy. Thanks to that exemption my evenings are not always annoyance free.